

THE MONDAY REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION 202 SKYLAND BLVD. TUSCALOOSA, AL 35406

October 14, 1985

LUCY KUBISZYN, Editor

SHELTON STATE RECEIVES TITLE III FUNDING

Shelton State Community College will receive $193,463 for the first year of a three-year grant under Title III of the Higher Education Act of 1965. The new grant, which comes under the United States Department of Education in Institutional Aid Program, was announced by the Department of Education Assistance Management and Procurement Service and will be initially funded October 1, 1985 - September 30, 1986.

There are three development activities plus program coordination that are funded for the current federal fiscal year. The development activities include Strengthening the College's Administrative/Management Capability, Upgrading, Updating and Expanding Shelton's Curriculum and Developing a Fund-Raising Capability.

Dr. Thomas Umphrey is project director and Dr. Dave Freeman has been named Title III coordinator.

PHOTOGRAPHER TO EXHIBIT IN LIBRARY

Ansel Adams, internationally recognized photographer, will exhibit his work at Shelton State Community College Library, October 11 - November 1, 1985.

Adams, who died in 1984, help found the department of photography at the Museum of Modern Art in New York, created the photography program at San Francisco's California School of Fine Arts, and was a founder and chairman of the Board of the Friends of Photography. Adams was a life-long conservationist and well known for his work with the Sierra Club, of which he served as a director from 1934 - 1971.

This selection of 25 of his works from the collection of Peter Scotese cover a 40-year period. The exhibit is circulated by the Southern Arts Federation and is funded in part by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts.

The exhibit is open to the public during regular library hours: Monday - Thursday, 8 a.m. - 9 p.m., Friday, 8 a.m. - 4 p.m.

FOUNDATION REPORT

John W. McDaniel, executive director of West Alabama General Hospital, has been elected to the Board of Directors, Shelton State Foundation. "Mr. McDaniel brings a wealth of experience in community involvement to the Foundation, and we are indeed happy to have him with us on the Board," said Hayse McGahey, president of the Foundation.

SAMPSON'S BOOK NOW AVAILABLE

The Double Genesis, a book of poetry by Dennis Sampson, instructor of English at Shelton State Community College, is now on sale in the bookstore of the junior college. Cost of the book is $7. Sampson will fly to New York City in December to be honored by the publishers of the book.

A SPECIAL CATEGORY HAS ALSO BEEN ADDED FOR PEOPLE WHO ARE INTERESTED IN PROMOTING THE FINE ARTS IN TUSCALOOSA. A PERSON WILL BE DESIGNATED AS A FINE ARTS BENEFACTOR FOR THE COLLEGE THROUGH A GIFT OF $1500 TO THE TUSCALOOSA COMMUNITY PLAYERS OR TO THE SHELTON STATE ART GALLERY. BENEFACTORS WILL BE HONORED BY THE COLLEGE IN VARIOUS WAYS DURING THE YEAR AND MAY PARTICIPATE IN THE PLANNED TOUR OF NEW YORK CITY AT NO ADDITIONAL COST.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

The 26th Fire and Arson Investigation Conference will be at the Alabama State Fire College November 4-8, 1985. This school is primarily for fire service, law enforcement and insurance investigators, but will prove helpful to anyone in fire investigative work in any capacity.

UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR TO BE AT SHELTON STATE

Dr. Martin Huttenstine, assistant professor of journalism, University of Alabama, will be the guest speaker at the meeting of Phi Theta Kappa, national junior college honorary, on Thursday, October 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the junior college, 202 Skyland Boulevard.

Dr. Huttenstine will speak on "Ethics and Today's Media." As a professor and authority on media law, Dr. Huttenstine offers an insight on the problems, conflicts and possible solutions that concern the media today.

The public, faculty, and students are invited to attend the meeting. A reception will follow the meeting.

CADEK TRIO FEATURED

The University of Alabama's acclaimed Cadek Trio will be featured as the next concert of the fall concert series at Shelton State. The concert will be Monday, October 14, at 12:30 p.m. in the music room. Members are Henry Rubin, Bruce Murray and Marlton McCreery. They will perform Trio Sonata in B, Opus 8 by Brahms.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER TO OPEN IN EVENINGS

The child development center will now be open in the evening. It will be open Monday - Thursday, 5:30 - 9:40 p.m., and the cost is $.50 per child per hour. Children 2 1/2 years old and older will be accepted. School age children may use this time as a study hall.

PHI THETA KAPPA LOOKING FOR NEW MEMBERS

Phi Theta Kappa, national junior college honorary, is looking for full-time students who meet the eligibility requirements for membership. To be a member, you must have maintained a 3.2 quality point average for two consecutive quarters at the college. Part-time students may be eligible if they have maintained a 3.2 quality point average for 25 consecutive hours at the college. If you are interested in joining the organization, please attend the first meeting of the year on Thursday, October 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium.

HANDICAPPED ZONES ENFORCED

New Handicapped parking zones will be designated on October 9. If your vehicle is parked in a blue zone after October 11, without a proper sticker, you will be ticketed $25 by the Tuscaloosa Police Department.

Students should attach parking decals on the inside, right front windshield.

LIBRARY RECEIVES GIFT

Shelton State instructors Joyce and Jim recently presented the library with a floor globe. It will be housed in the junior college and can be taken to classrooms upon request.

NEW YORK TOUR Shelton State will offer a five day college art & theatre tour to New York City Dec 3-8.

✓ Deadline for registering for the tour to New York City is Thursday, October 31. This five-day college art and theatre tour of the Big Apple will be led by Dr. Bethany Engle and Paul Looney, Shelton faculty instructors.

Included in the tour schedule are the three Broadway shows, "Cats," "Big River," and "Song and Dance," as well as the Metropolitan Opera's production of "Figaro." Trips to the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Museum of Modern Art are planned in addition to visits with visual and performing artists. Several tours of the city are planned, and a dinner at the famous Italian restaurant, Mama Leone's is also included in the price. The tour price includes roundtrip air fare from Birmingham to New York, hotel reservations at the Ramada Inn, a daily guide service, and all tickets, taxes, tips and baggage handling.

The approximate cost of the tour is $700, based on quadruple room occupancy.

The trip will offer two hours of credit from the junior college and may be taken as Art Museum Survey or Live Theatre Survey. Continuing education credit is also available.